

THE POWER OF PLANNING:

KEY STEPS TO HELP NAVIGATE BEFORE & AFTER THE END OF A LIFE
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22ND | 6:00PM-7:00PM

Somers Library Virtual Presentation: <https://bit.ly/3BuZK2a>

Somers Library

Planning for our own death isn't something we're eager to focus on. Yet, we have the opportunity to make our hopes, desires and wishes known, and help ease the burden for our loved ones. This topic has become especially relevant, as the pandemic has caused many of us to refocus on what's most important in life.

Join us for a roundtable discussion on trends, strategies and simple steps you can take to better prepare for the challenges/transitions that come with end-of-life.

Speakers:

Lauren C. Enea, Esq., Enea, Scanlan & Sirignano, LLP

Meredith Byrne, Cemetery Operations Manager, Westchester Hills Cemetery

Hosted by Judi McAnaw, Financial Advisor, Edward Jones

To register, contact the Somers Library or Ann Gildea at (914) 669-5329

We hope you can join us for this event. Please feel free to share the invitation with others who may be interested in participating.
